This is meant to be a fun, introduction to the sport of eventing for those (either rider or horse) who haven't done it before or need a confidence boost. It is not a competition but dressage tests will be scored by a qualified dressage judge and you will ride a numbered cross country course like in a competition. Leadline can be used for both dressage and cross country but the dressage will not be scored. Your insured coach must be on the cross country field with you and we must have a copy of the coach's insurance on file.

Dressage:

You can choose to ride the HCBC USDF INTRODUCTORY LEVEL – TEST A (walk-trot) or the EC EV85 Test 1 (walk trot canter). You can also choose a different dressage test and your test will be scored but you won't be included in the division placings.

Dressage will be in the 20 x 40 m ring.

Cross Country:

Course will consist of about 10 small, numbered obstacles less than 61 cm (2' or lower) placed in the lower end of the cross-country field just north of the sand ring. The cross-country phase is not HCBC sanctioned.

A NEW DIVISION OFFERED: AP Kindergarten Course will consist of about 12 numbered jumps approx. 69 cm (2'3") placed from the sand ring up to the water jump in the middle of the field.

COST: $75 for CVES members and $80 for non-members. Extra Dressage tests can be added for $35 and extra Cross Country rounds for $15.

AP Kindergarten - $95 for CVES Members and $100 for non-members. Extra cross country rounds $30.

Payment by e-transfer to entries@cves.ca

Tack and Dress: See HCBC rules. All riders, regardless of age or level of competition, must wear ASTM/SEI or BSI approved protective headgear with safety harness correctly secured at all times while mounted. Suitable boots with heel must be worn. Body protector vests must be worn for the cross-country phase.

Scratches: Must be received by the entry secretary by the closing date. Late scratches need a vet or medical certificate: otherwise, you will forfeit your entry fees unless the spot can be filled. Refunds will be less the bank transaction fee of $1.25.

Parking: Parking will be in the upper parking lot, NOT by the red barn.
